TO THE PUBLIC.—THE SUBSCRIBER IS pleased to inform the public that his CHOLERA AND DIARRHŒA MEDICINE affords more prompt relief in the various affections of the Bowels, and consequently more satisfaction to all who have used it, than any other Medicine ever offered to the public. The following are among many testimonials of its efficacy:

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I take much pleasure in adding my testimony to others in favor of your remedy for Bowel Affections, &c., having so frequently experienced its beneficial results in my own case, as well as in many others to whom I have given it. I carried a bottle of it with me to Baltimore, and here permit me to say, I would as soon think of traveling without money as without this remedy, and finding many among my acquaintances there who were suffering with various forms of Bowel Affections, I gave it freely, and in NO INSTANCE did it fail to afford the MOST PROMPT AND DECIDED RELIEF, as it has done here. I congratulate you, and especially the public, on the discovery of a medicine which is better calculated to protect mankind and alleviate suffering, than any other ever brought before the people. L. T. SPIERS.

This is to certify that, some weeks back, I was taken with a violent Diarrhœa, which persisted for eight days. Being some sixty miles from home, I made use of all the remedies I could think of, without affording any relief. On arriving at home, I was informed that Dr. R. H. Worthington had prepared a remedy for Cholera, &c., and was advised to use it. I did so, and to my astonishment, one single dose gave speedy and permanent relief, since which time I have used it frequently in my family; and in justice to the Doctor say, I consider it much the most valuable Medicine I have used in an experience of twenty years.

F. M. CAPEHART.

Murfreesboro', N. C., Oct. 2, '54.

Dr. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in recommending your Cholera Medicine to the public, and more especially since I have had personal experience and observation of its beneficial effects.

I have tried several remedies put up for Cholera, &c., but have never found such happy results from any as from your invaluable remedy. I have such unbounded confidence in its efficacy, that I am unwilling and will not leave home without a supply with me; and I regard it as one of the most valuable discoveries of the age. Yours, truly,

W. P. BEAMAN.

WINDSOR, N. C., Sept. 19, '54.

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I have made some effort, and have succeeded in introducing your Medicine to the public, and I find it is taking very well indeed; and the result is, that I have nearly sold what you sent me. I therefore wish you would send me some more as soon as you can. * * * I have not the slightest doubt but that this Medicine is the very best remedy out for the disease for which it is recommended. I hope you will soon send me a supply, as I would not like to get entirely out of it.

Yours, truly,

GEORGE W. McGLAUGHON.

[From the Murfreesboro' Gazette.]

Messrs. EDITORS: In looking over the last number of the Gazette, I found a communication from our friend, Mr. L. T. Spiers, recommending Dr. R. H. Worthington's Cholera Mixture to the public, for the cure of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and other kindred diseases. Having experienced in my own case, the happy effects of its use, as well as other members of my family, I can safely say that I regard it as superior to any remedy we have ever used, in an experience of twenty years. I would, therefore, recommend it to every family, as an invaluable remedy, and every individual to procure a bottle and keep it by them in these times of cholera.

R. R. PARKER.

Murfreesboro', Aug 30, '54.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. R. H. Worthington's Cholera Medicine in my family for the last four or five weeks, in several cases of Bowel Complaint, so common in our vicinity, with invariable success. One of the cases was that of a negro child, some four or five months old, who was so emaciated by the effects of the disease, that its life was nearly despaired of, when my wife happened to think that she would try the Cholera Medicine, and did so with complete success, in less than forty-eight hours. I am thoroughly of opinion that no family should be without so fine a medicine.

Given under my hand, this 3d day of October, '54.

A. W. DARDEN.

MURFREESBORO', N. C.

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON: It affords us pleasure to say, that we have used your Cholera Diarrhœa Medicine for the last twelve months, and have found it invariably successful, in relieving speedily the cases in which we have had occasion to use it. We entertain a high appreciation of its value, and have no hesitation in expressing the opinion, that it will prove to be a valuable family medicine.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—BEING prevented by my profession from attending properly to agricultural pursuits, I offer for sale my plantation upon the Roanoke and upon Stone House and Pretty creeks, in the counties of Warren and Halifax, containing 966 acres. The tract is situated about seven miles above Gaston, and four miles from the Littleton Depot on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. It contains about one hundred acres of excellent low grounds. The balance of the land is generally productive, and well adapted to the growth of the usual crops of this section of the State. The overseer's House, negro houses, stables, barns, and other plantation improvements are good. The water is excellent, and the situation of the buildings is believed to be healthy. It is deemed useless to give a more particular description of the property, as it is presumed that no one would purchase without a careful examination. My overseer will shew the land to persons who may desire to examine it. In order to allow a man of enterprise an opportunity to pay a considerable portion of the purchase money out of the crops, I am willing to sell the land upon a credit of one and two years. The purchaser, if he thinks proper, can also buy upon reasonable terms, most of my crop of corn, fodder and oats, and also my stock and plantation utensils. Letters upon the subject may be addressed to me at Warrenton, N. C.

Resolved, That the North Carolina Western branch from Salisbury Central Rail Road via Watauga Pass, be considered an extension to the main trunk line.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Boyden from Onslow.

Resolved, That the Legislature be requested to incorporate a Company to construct a road from the North Carolina, Tennessee & Ohio Rail Road Company, to run from the town of Wilmington, or from some point on the Wilmington and Manchester Rail Road, through Fayetteville and Salisbury, to the Tennessee line—that said line is strictly a Great State work, and that the Legislature be requested to appropriate two-thirds of the amount of the cost necessary for the construction of such work.

Legislature of North Carolina, the passage of an act authorizing the counties and corporate towns through which, or near to which said Rail Road may pass, to subscribe such sums as may be regarded judicious, after the sense of the voters of the counties and corporate towns may have been taken in relation thereto.

Some of your Committee entertained fears that the towns may have been taken in relation thereto.

SECRET POLITICAL SOCIETIES.

Secret political societies are commendable only when they become a necessity for the preservation of liberty. In tyrannical governments, where despotism tramples beneath its iron feet the rights of the people—where liberty of speech and the freedom of the press are denied—where patriotism DARE not utter its sentiments—there, and there only, should secret societies, to affect affairs of State, be formed. Their tendency is revolutionary, and only where revolution is desirable are they proper.

In a Republican goverment, such as ours, where the widest latitude is allowed to the tongue and the press—where the freedom of both is guarantied by our Constitutions—where every man is a sovereign, and where the pride and boast of our principles are their openness, their independence and their purity, it is but natural that a lover of his country should regard with distrust any secret organization intended to affect our popular elections. If the deeds, or intentions of such an organization be not evil; if its members are not conscious that their principles will not bear the light of publicity, why shroud them in darkness and mystery? why hide them from the public eye? If their principles be commendable; if they are calculated to promote the happiness of our people and the glory of the Republic; if they are right, and proper, and just, why not lay them bare before every eye and trust to the good sense and sound judgment of an enlightened people for their adoption?

The above is the view we have at this time chosen to take of a modern ism, known as "Know-Nothingism," with as many aliases as have been found necessary to prevent detection and escape condemnation. "Sons of the Sires of '76," "Order of the Star Spangled Banner," &c., &c., are among its appellations. But no matter what its name, its aims and objects are the same everywhere; and if credence may be given to the revelations which have been made concerning it, its designs are subversive of political and religious liberty, and it seeks to pervert justice by impairing the sanctity of judicial oaths. What other aims it may have we know not, but we may confidently assert, upon its own authority, that one of its objects is to prevent the naturalization of foreigners and debar them from the rights of citizenship.

True it is that many worthless foreigners are annually thrown upon our shores; and it is equally true that many worthless native born citizens are annually admitted to the elective franchise. When the foreign influence becomes dangerous or threatening, then we should oppose it; or if it has already become so, we should seek to put it down—not secretly, not in midnight conclaves bound by obligations into which we blindly enter; but openly, in the face of day and before the light and intelligence of our patriotic people. But has that influence assumed any threatening shape? If so, we know it not. Many of our best citizens are of foreign birth. We are a nation of foreigners—a nation made up of people from every clime, with the Anglo Saxon race predominant, and giving its qualities and characteristics to all. If, as we have proudly thought, our Republic has been selected by the Almighty as the abiding place of liberty, as the light of the world, and as the asylum for the oppressed of all nations, they who seek to impair it in one respect, impair it in all; and while we remove the protecting ægis from over the head of a fellow-man, no matter from what country he may come, we dim the light of our own liberties and weaken the power of our example for good; and instead of the blessings now poured forth upon us by the down-trodden sufferers of tyranny, their curses will be heaped upon us, and God will not prosper us, for He is not unmindful of the oppressed.

But there is one fact at which our Southern people should attentively look—Know Nothingism had its origin in that hot-bed of all the isms except patriotism, the abolition city of New York. We have often remarked the great number of isms and new fangled schemes and notions of the North, and have rejoiced that the South was comparatively free from them. This one has travelled the country over, and with astonishing rapidity has spread through the South as well as through the North. If the intention is to found a new party, we have no objections to it, provided its principles, its aims and objects be made known. If they are such as we approve, we shall say so; if not, we shall war against them. But we never expect to leave the Democratic party for any other. It is sufficient for us, and its principles carried into operation are sufficient for the prosperity and honor of our country. The Whig party is rent asunder and dead, and its leaders and political aspirants know it, and they are only seeking to bind its corpse to the electric body of Know Nothingism to galvanize it into momentary life, hoping to ride into office upon the current. For fifteen years the Whig party lorded it over the Democratic party in North Carolina; and now that the latter has got into power, will Democrats suffer themselves to be seduced into co-operation with those against whom they have warred so long, and at last successfully? Can they do it?

☞ DUNCAN K. MCRAE, Esq., United States' Consul at Paris, arrived here a day or two since on a brief visit to his friends. Mr. McRae, it is understood, was the bearer of despatches to the general government from the late conference of American Ministers at Ostend, Belgium. He came, and will probably return in the steamer Arabia. His stay will necessarily be short.

The nature of the despatches has not transpired; but the presumption is, from the attitude of European powers towards each other, and towards this country, and from the relations at present between Spain and the United States, that they are of much importance.

Mr. McRae's numerous friends in all parts of the State will be pleased to learn that he is in excellent health and spirits. His residence abroad has not diminished, but rather increased his enthusiastic devotion to his native land.

LETTERS FROM PROF. EMMONS. We have recently published some interesting letters from Prof. Emmons, addressed to the Governor of the State; and we have others in hand, which shall appear soon.

HON. J. C. DOBBIN.

We copy the following article from the last Washington Union. We cordially concur with that paper in its expressions of regard for Mr. Dobbin; and as one of his personal and political friends, and as a citizen of the State, we are proud of the intimate and confiding character of the relations between him and the President, as well as of the masterly manner in which he is discharging the duties of the high place he occupies in the Executive Department of the country. His course, as indicated in the Union's article, is taken, we doubt not, from the pure and exalted motive of standing by the President in the midst of a crisis in the affairs of the Democratic party and of the country such as has never at any former period been upon either; and those of his friends here, who have been pressing his name in connection with another post, though they must experience disappointment, will nevertheless cheerfully acquiesce in his wishes on the subject, thus authoritatively made known. Our position in regard to the Senatorships forbids that we should say more. But, whatever the future may disclose, it is not necessary that we should offer any formal assurance that the deep interest which the Democracy of the State have heretofore felt in the fortunes of Mr. Dobbin, will undergo no abatement or change. The administration of Franklin Pierce could have no member better qualified for his position and duties than our distinguished countryman; and the Democracy of no State—though they may be less obtrusive or more reserved in their demonstrations than those of others—will cling with more firmness and fidelity to the Administration of their choice, whether its course be on smooth seas or amid storms which now seem to threaten us from various quarters. The Union's article is as follows:

"THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY AND THE NORTH CAROLINA SENATORSHIP. It is well known that the name of Mr. Dobbin has been associated recently, by the public press and in conversation with the senatorial honors soon to be conferred by the legislature of North Carolina on two of her statesmen. It is also, perhaps, equally well known that he is a gentleman of great popularity in his native State, and that he has hosts of friends who are enthusiastic in their desire to elevate him to the Senate, for which his prudence, his sound judgment, and eloquence so well fit him.

We learn, however, upon inquiry, that the honorably Secretary has very recently written to his friends at home, desiring them not to present his name to the legislature as a candidate for an election to the Senate. We have reason to know, also, that the relations between the President and Mr. D. are not merely agreeable, but are of that warm and friendly and confiding character which causes the President to be deeply solicitous that he should remain in the cabinet. We believe it will be conceded by all that Mr. Dobbin has administered the department over which he presides with impartiality, ability, and energy; that his suggestive mind, animated by a deep interest in the navy, has already presented for consideration reforms calculated to infuse a new spirit into our gallant navy, and make it truly "a right arm of defence." North Carolina may well be proud of her son, and well may the President be happy to retain the benefit of his prudent counsels, his ardent friendship, and his untiring energy."

THE GALLANT DOUGLAS.

Judge Douglas is still on the stump in the Northwestern States, advocating the Constitutional rights of the slaveholding States and confronting and defying the vile hordes of fusionists and abolitionists. His personal and political friends have offered him a public dinner at Chicago on the 9th instant, which he has accepted. We have seen one of the letters of invitation to the dinner, signed by the Committee. It breathes the fullest and strongest spirit of opposition to sectionalism and abolitionism.

The Dubuque Herald notices as follows a late speech by Judge Douglas at Galena:

"Judge Douglas spoke at Galena on Saturday evening. The court-house was filled to its utmost capacity, and yet it was impossible for all who desired to hear him to find admittance. It was our good fortune, as well as some fifteen or twenty others from Dubuque, to listen for three hourse and a half to the overwhelming arguments, the scathing satire, and burning eloquence of the Little Giant. During the first part of his speech there was a disposition manifested by a portion of the audience to disturb the meeting by hisses; but as the distinguished senator advanced in his argument, and his feelings became thoroughly enlisted in his subject, the violence of abolitionism was disarmed; silence pervaded the dense throng, and every auditor—democrat, whig, fusionist, abolitionist, and know nothing—seemed to drink in the spirit of the speaker. The interest was sustained to the very last letter articulated, and then three hearty cheers were given for the gallant leader of the democracy of Illinois, and the equally gallant champion of the democracy of the Union. The speaker was frequntly interrupted during the course of his speech with hearty demonstrations of applause, and the tears which flowed from the eyes of old and venerable men, who were just ready to descend into the grave, reminded us forcibly that we had not assembled on that evening to listen to an ordinary exhibition of the power of intellect, the force of truth and history, and the beauty and sublimity of true eloquence. In the graphic language of the Colonel, he fairly "captured" his audience."

☞ The Washington Union, in the course of a searching and able article in relation to the secret order of Know Nothings, says:

"When we see this orgainzed and arrogant party looking forward to the country of the nation—preparing, in their eager zeal for power, to assume control of the general government itself—we may, without injustice to the truth, appeal to their brief experience in a great and populous city like Philadelphia, as a monument of the proscriptive, intolerant, and licentious nature of their policy and their purposes. If Henry Clay and Daniel Webster still lived among us, and happened to be members of the Catholic church, nothing could save them from being discarded and disfranchised. An Irishman like the gallant Shields, his health still suffering form the wounds received in recent conflicts, would be rejected. If John Bell, George E. Badger, John M. Clayton, &c., &c., well known whigs leaders, were the sons of Irishmen, or Frenchmen, or Germans, their doom would be written in advance; for, be it understood, that up to this moment there has been no exception in the unsparing proscriptions of this new party. At least they are impartial, and, as the case of Joseph R. Chandler shows, they do not hesitate to strike at the most deserving and most esteemed citizens, if they come within their iron and despotic rule. Nothing thus far has appalled or appeased them; they pursue their victims with insatiable vengeance, and when they cannot justify they refuse to explain."

☞ Messrs. F. Mahler & Co. offer to-day in our advertising columns, a rich and varied assortment of articles. We have tested some of Mr. Mahler's articles, and have found them equal in every respect to his representations of them. He deserves encouragement.

☞ We publish to-day, as a matter of interest to the public, and especially to the stockholders, the Report of the President and Directors of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company to the late annual meeting held in this place. The proceedings in full, in pamphlet form, will be published soon.

NOVEMBER ELECTIONS. On Tuesday next, the 7th instant, elections will be held in five northern States for fifty-four members of Congress, as follows:

New York	33
New Jersey	5
Illinois	9
Michigan	4
Wisconsin	3
	54

On Monday, the 13th inst., an election takes place in Massachusetts for State officers and eleven members of Congress, making in all sixty-five members to be chosen during the present month. The delegations in the present Congress from these six States stand as follows:

Democrats	39
Whigs	16
Democratic majority	23

In New York, State officers are to be chosen. The contest is involved in great doubt and perplexity, as there are no less than nine tickets in the field. The New York Times, however, is of opinion that the contest for governor is narrowed down to Seymour and Clark.

State officers are also to be chosen in New Jersey. There are but two tickets before the people—democratic and fusion.

Michigan elects State officers. There are two tickets in the field, of the same complexion as in New Jersey.

Illinois elects members of Congress and the State legislature. The legislature to be elected will choose a United States senator in the place of Gen. Shields, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

Wisconsin elects State officers and members of the legislature. A United States senator is to be elected in the place of Mr. Walker, whose term expires with the present Congress.

Massachusetts elects State officers and members of the legislature. There are three tickets before the people. Wash. Union.

SYNOD. This body closed its session in this place on last Sabbath. Sunday was decidedly a "big day" here. At an early hour the Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran Churches were all filled to running over, by large and attentive audiences. A large number of ladies were present, all very pretty of course (we've too much gallantry to say anything else, however much we should be convinced to the contrary.)

There was quite a number of able and talented men among the delegaters, and the debates were highly interesting sometimes. One fact was adduced, during the Session, which we had no idea of before. It appears from the reports laid before the Synod, that there are thirty counties in this State, that have no Presbyterian Churches. We did not think that there was one country m the State destitute of that Church.

Everything passed off happily, and we hope much good was accomplished by the sermons and lectures delivered on the occasion.

We have been requested to publish the following resolution, passed by the Synod, on the last day of its session:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Synod be returned to the people of Concord, for their kindness and hospitality to the members during its sessions; and also, to the authorities of the Lutheran and Methodist Churches, for the offer of their Churches to the use of the Synod, and that the Pastor of this Church make known this resolution to the parties.

INCOMING COTTON CROP. We extract the following from TALCOTT and Brother's Circular, forwarded to Liverpool on the 28th by the Baltic:

With dates from New Orleans of 24th instant, by telegraph, we have as yet no accounts of killing frost. Our correspondents at New Orleans write under date of 17th inst. as follows:

"Cotton crop accounts are better this week; the fine weather improves the prospects and checks the complaints. We have beautiful weather, with no indications yet of early frost. The popular estimate of the crop here is 3,000,000 bales, which will not be large enough unless we have an early frost. Our present impression about the crop is, that if frost keeps off eight or ten days longer, we shall adopt your figures of 3,100,000 bales; and if it keeps off two or three weeks longer, we don't know how much higher we shall set our mark."

Our estimate of 3100,000, which we believe will be realized, was based as we advised, "on a fair average season, with killing frosts the last week in October." If frost holds off until the 12th or 15th November, we shall feel ourselves justified in raising your figures; but at all events, are satisfied that the short crop estimates recently indulged in at the South, ranging from 2,700,000 to 2,980,000 bales, must soon be abandomed.

On the 24th inst at New Orleans, Middling Cotton was quoted at 8¾ a 9c.; freights in American ships' 7-16d.

THE NEW YORK KNOW-NOTHINGS. The New York Know Nothings or rather those opposed to the ticket headed by Mr. Ullman, met at Utica last week, and nominated Myron H. Clark, the nominee of the whigs and six other parties, for Governor, and Elijah Ford, a Hard Democrat, for Lieut. Governor. In New York city the Know-Nothings are also divided. On Saturday night, a large meeting was held at a house in the 9th ward, to form a new council, but as many failed to gain admittance, quite a row ensued The doors, it appears, were broken open, and a regular fight ensued. A New York paper says:

The entering party were met with clubs and blows by those inside, and many we are informed, received severe and bloody injuries. It is stated to us that the entering party composed a majority of the regular 9th ward council; took possession of the meeting, assuming that according to the laws of the order, but one council could exist in the same ward, and that the president, J. W. Barker, had no authority to organize a second on the ground that the existing council had refused him its support. A scene of the most violent disorder was ended by the entrance of the police, and the belligerents dispersed.

In this mammon-worshiping Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, DR. C. AYER, whose name is now perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionare, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his laborers, among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business, and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the nett profit is small. American Farmer, Phil.

HOW TO BURN COAL. The great mistake of all is to put on too much coal, as if it were wood—the greater the quantity the greates the heat. If too much coal is applied, the combustion is necessarily imperfect, because the fire is necessarily "choked up," the draught destroyed, and the elements of the coal, slowly escaping from it, pass off to the chimney unconsumed, or are disseminated in gases through the room. Whereas, if the strata of coal be but moderate, a red flame will play around the interior of the stove, by which entire combustion and a healthy heat are secured. One ton of coal, therefore, by thorough combustion will often secure more heat, and a healthier atmosphere, than two tons secured in the ordinary way: and this is a fact which can be easily demonstrated. Graham's Magazine.

PERPETUAL MOTION. The discovery of a new perpetual motion is announced at New York. It is on the plan of arms and balls attached to a cylinder, so as to keep the extra weight always on the descending side. It requires no starting, only needs letting loose and off it goes. The difficulty is to stop it. The Journal of Commerce says:

"After a careful examination we can safely say, in all seriousness, that the propelling power is self-sustained and self-adjusting, and gives a sufficiently active force to carry ordinary clock work, and all without any winding up or replenishing."

New York Elections.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. As far as heard from, Ullman (Know-Nothing,) has received 48,000 votes, Seymour (Soft,) 44,000, Clark (Whig,) 35,000, Bronson (Hard,) 7,000. The contest, it is believed, will be very close between Ullman and Seymour.

Barker (Know-Nothing,) is supposed to be elected Mayor of New York City.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8—P. M. The returns received up to this hour are very meagre. The contest for Governor will be between Ullman and Seymour. The former is ahead.

[LATEST.]

As we go to press (Friday Morning) we learn that Seymour is ahead, with a fair probability of being elected, and that Wood is elected mayor of the city.

New Jersey Election.

TRENTON, Nov. 9—8 o'clock, p. m. The election in this State to-day has been closely contested. The probabilities are that three democratic congressmen have been elected.

In the 5th district Pennington (whig) is believed to be elected over John S. Darcy, (dem.)

In the 4th district it is reported that P. C. Osborne (independent democrat) is elected over Hon. George Vail, the present representative.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

Later returns indicate that the five fusion candidates for Congress are elected. The fusionists claim to have secured a majority in the legislature.

[THIRD DESPATCH.]

NEWARK, (N. J.,) Nov. 7.—In the first district the contest is very close; but it is believed, however, that Mulford (dem.) is elected.

From the fifth district the returns indicate the election of John S. Darcy (dem.) over Pennington.

Wisconsin Election.

MILWAUKIE, Nov. 7.—As far as heard from, the indications are that the fusion ticket is successful throughout the State.

Illinois Election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—As far as heard from, four fusion candidates for Congress are elected.

More About the Arctic.

BOSTON, Nov. 7. The schooner Lilly Dale had arrived at St. John, Newfoundland. She picked up one of the Arctic's boats empty, thirty miles south of Cape Broyle, and saw another empty at a distance.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. It is thought that a new trial will be granted Dr. Graham.

Campbell & Mood, lumber merchants, have failed. There is a rumor of the failure of a large hardware house.

The Glasgow has arrived here. Her news is anticipated.

THE NEXT SENATE. The Journal of Commerce says of the United States Senate of the 34th Congress:

"Legislatures strongly democratic, upon which respectively the choice of United States senators will devolve, have been elected in Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina, (two,) and South Carolina. It is safe to put down eight Nebraska senators from these States, and one from Missouri, whose legislature, although politically uncertain, is in favor of the Nebraska law by a large majority. Here, then, are nine Nebraska senators in prospect, which may safely be added to the thirty-one already elected, making an aggregate of forty in favor of said law. Even conceding to the anti-Nebraskaites all the chances for the senators to be elected in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, New York, New Hampshire, (two,) and Wisconsin—which they are by no means entitled to—still they would have but twenty-two senators all told, or only about one-third of the whole number; the Senate, when full, comprising sixty-two members."

Charles F. Fisher, Esq., has been elected Senator from the District made up of Rowan and Davie. Mr. Fisher, who is a Democrat, has been elected to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of A. Lillington, Esq., Whig.

No better choice could have been made. The Senator elect is son of the late Hon. Charles Fisher, than whom the State never produced a man of a more vigorous and masculine understanding, or of more practical usefulness. Mr. Fisher inherits much of his father's strength of mind, combined with exceedingly amiable and popular manners, and full and accurate knowledge of the resources and wants of the State. Wil. Journal.

ASSISTANT STATE GEOLOGIST.—The Standard states that Dr. J. F. Tompkins, Editor of the Farmer's Journal, has been appointed Assistant to Prof. Emmons in the Agricultural and Geological Survey of the State, now going forward, in place of Dr. McClanahan of Chatham, resigned. A most judicious and well merited selection. The citizens of this State are indebted to Dr. Tomkins perhaps more than to any other individual, for the many improvements recently introduced into our agricultural operations, and this appointment will open a wider field for the exercise of his varied acquirements, indemitable energy, and untiring perseverance.

Tarboro' Southerner.

THE GREAT FAILURE IN ENGLAND. London papers received by the Pacific, give the indebtedness of Mr. Oliver, the great English ship owner, and the extent of his business operations. He held a fleet of 104 sail of vessels, of some 40,000 tones. He owes twenty-three creditors upwards of $10,000 each. To his largest creditor his indebtedness is $695,000; to two others he owes $300,000 each; to one creditor $225,000; to another $150,000; to four others $120,000 each; to two $100,000 each; to two others $75,000 each; and four others $50,000 each. By his schedule his total indebtedness is represented to be $3,388,000.

ROBESON COUNTY FAIR. The Agricultural Fair for Robeson county comes off on Thursday next, Nov. 9th, at Lumberton. We expect the farmers of Robeson will show on that occasion that they are not behind their neighbors in agriculture, but are equal with the best. Old Robeson is not behind the age in anything. She has some of the best schools that are found in the State—her population is intelligent, industrious, and happy—and, in the language of a late speaker, she contains some of the "prettiest women the sun ever shone upon."

THE COMPTROLLER OF THE STATE. We learn by a letter from Raleigh, that Major Wm. J. Clark, the present able and efficient public officer at the head of this Department, will not be a candidate for re-election. This is now an important office, although it has attached to it but a meagre salary. The ensuing General Assembly will have to select a successor.

We hope that our present worthy and able treasurer will be continued in office. A more faithful public officer could not be obtained.

Milton Spectator.

HON. WM. S. ASHE. We give up a portion of our columns to-day to the interesting letter of the Hon. Wm. S. Ashe, the talented representative from the Third Congressional district, written in reply to an invitation to attend the Kerr dinner at Yanceyville, on the 28th of September. We commend it to our readers as well worth a perusal, on account of the true Southern sentiment which pervades the whole letter. He is an able and efficient representative, and has done much to promote the interests of Eastern Carolina. Milton Spectator.

The U. S. steamship Princeton, Com'dr Eagle, sailed yesterday for San Juan, having on board the Hon John H. Wheeler, U. S. Minister Resident at Nicaragua, and family, and John N. Fabens, Esq., late U. S. Commercial Agent at Greytown.

THE DRY WEATHER. We learn that some of the Wells in this County, will scarcely afford water for all necessary purposes; and that in Nash, one of the adjoining Counties, some of the Farmers have to haul water from the important Creeks and Branches. This scarcity of water, is caused, no doubt, by the long spell of dry weather which we have recently had. Hal. Rep.

☞ Hogs. At Cincinnati there are now some ten thousand hogs in pens. The feeling on the part of packers is dull and heavy. In that city there are some few orders to contract at $4 25, but sales could not be made to any great extent it is said at that figure.

Correspondence of the North Carolina Standard.

Politics and the Pulpit—Infidelity encouraged—New York Election—Massachusetts Democracy—National party necessary for the safety of the Union—Sickles and Peabody—An American flunkey—the Secretary of the Navy and the election of Senator—New era in the Navy—Consul at Paris.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 7, 1854.

Ministers of the Gospel in the Northern States cannot even devote one day in seven to their holy calling, but have turned the pulpit into a stump, from which to promulgate politics, generally of an abolition and disunion stamp. Last Sunday at least a score of political sermons were delivered in the City of New York on the subjects bearing upon the election in that State to-day. The religious papers, with one or two exceptions, are also devoted to political discussions. Can it be that pure religion has any place in the hearts of the members of these congregations, when discourses pandering to fanaticism and prejudices are demanded instead of those breathing the precepts of the Bible? Will it not lead to universal infidelity to see the clergy neither preach nor practise what they pretend to profess? The 3000 preachers are doing their work, and are serving the devil and promoting the schemes of disunionists at the same time.

While I write the political contest in New York; New Jersey, Massachusetts and some other States is being decided. There are three candidates for Congress in nearly every District in New York and Massachusetts, and in the former State the candidates for various offices are numbered by hundreds if not thousands. The press have requested the holders of the election in New York to canvass the vote for Governor first, and it is therefore possible that the result may be known here some time to-night.

The Boston Post of Monday contains a resume of the canvass for members of Congress in that State, examining the position of the various candidates in every District. It is indeed gratifying to observe the attitude of the true Democracy of the State as compared with the abolitionism of all the other parties and factions arrayed against it. By all the nominating Conventions resolutions were adopted endorsing the measures of the present administration, and in all but one or two endorsing the Nebraska-Kansas bill specifically, as consistent with the doctrine of non-intervention by Congress with the subject of slavery and of the sovereign rights of the States. In the 7th District, the action of the Democracy was perhaps the most significant. A convention was held, in which were a majority of anti-Nebraska men and an anti-Nebraska candidate was nominated. The minority seceded, held a new convention, passed resolutions of a national character, and nominated a candidate whose sentiments agreed with those expressed by the Convention. The Whigs and Free-soilers of all denominations have generally coalesced throughout the State, adopting an out and out abolition platform, the principal features of which are the repeal of the fugitive slave law, and the exclusion of any more slave States from the Union. There are know Nothing candidates in nearly every District, and it is possible that some good and true men may be elected throughthe triangular contest. I refer to the election in Massachusetts for the especial purpose of disproving the allegation of the Southern Whig press, that all parties at the North occupy the same position—that all are equally hostile to the rights of the South. Northern Whigs are so completely sectionalized that Southern Whigs have been compelled to discontinue all political association with them. They have suddenly assumed the championship of Southern interests, and seek to build up a sectional party by effecting the dissolution of the only national organization of parties now existing. The South cannot however abandon those sound men at the North who recognize the equal rights of all the States under the Constitution, with safety to itself; its only hope to maintain the integrity of the Union is by supporting the national party and those true men.

The City papers contain a correspondence between Mr. Sickles, the Secretary of the American Legation at London and Mr. Peabody, the American London banker, growing out of a dinner given by the latter individual on the 4th of July last in honor of the Declaration of Independence. The whole correspondence together with a correct statement of the management of the dinner, shows up Mr. Peabody as one of those flunkeys who disgrace America abroad by cringing to foreign nobility. At the dinner the health of the Queen was drunk before that of the President of the United States, and all the Americanism of the Star Spangled Banner, which was sung on the occasion, was cut out so as to render it palatable to the English guests present. No wonder that the management of the whole affair gave great dissatisfation to Mr. Buchanan and his Secretary and to every genuine American present. Mr. Peabody's flunkeyism is even more disgusting than Geo. N. Sander's republican efforts in Europe are ridiculous.

The Union of this morning contains a reference to the election of U. S. Senator, by the Legislature of North Carolina, confirming the impression current in political circles for the last few days, that Mr. Dobbin had written to his friends in your State, declining to be considered as a candidate for the Senate. Next to filling the Presidential Chair, no position is more honorable than that of the Representative of a sovereign State in the United States Senate; but the success which has attended Mr. Dobbin's management of the Navy Department, and the great degree of confidence he enjoys with the country at large, seemed to demand that he should continue his present connection with the Administration. His energy, industry and impartiality are gradually producing their legitimate effects upon the Navy, and raising it to a degree of efficiency which will mark this as an era in its history. With Mr. Dobbin in the Cabinet, two Democratic Senators and at least five Democratic members in the House, in the next Congress, North Carolina will take her place as a thorough Democratic State at the National Capitol.

Our consul at Paris, Duncan R. McRae, Esqr., of Wilmington, arrived in Washington on Saturday morning last, and left on Sunday, on a flying visit to his friends in North Carolina. It is whispered that he brought important despatches from various American Legations in Europe, and that he will return to his post in a few days bearing despatches in reply. Of course their tenor has not been divulged to the public, and nothing is certainly known as to their contents. MECKLENBURG.

INTERESTING EXTRACTS.

Extracts from a letter from our Washington Correspondent, dated

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

"In connection with the European war and as a consequence of it, I may refer to the conclusion of a treaty between the United States and Russia, incorporating into the Laws of Nations, so far as the contracting powers are concerned, the American doctrine that "free ships make free goods," and the property of neutrals found on an enemy's ship is not subject to seizure unless contraband of war. The text of this treaty appears in the Union of yesterday morning, and although it is not of much consequence to our trade as a maratime power, it is gratifying to know that an American doctrine has thus been recognized as international law by one of the first class powers of the globe. At the commencement of hostilities between Western and Eastern Europe, England and France made known their determination to observe the same rule during the present war. They are not yet ready to make this doctrine a part of public law through treaty stipulations, but probably they will find it to their interest hereafter, in contests with other powers that may arise, to observe it as a rule.

From the tone of a paragraph in a recent number of the Union it appears that the Administration regards the acquisition of Cuba as a measure the accomplishment of which is to be secured by every honorable means in its power. English opinion, judging from a recent article in Blackwood, is settling down upon the conviction that Cuba will certainly be ours in a few years, and that the best thing for British holders of Spanish bonds is for Spain to cede it to the United States for a consideration while she has the power of doing so. The Spanish Treasury is bankrupt, and the Spanish bonds aforesaid are worthless unless Uncle Sam will endorse them in consideration of being permitted to embrace the "Queen of the Antilles!" The recent assassination of Castanedo in Havana, the betrayer of Lopez, and the proceedings attending his funeral, show the feeling of disaffection to Spanish rule among the Creoles in Cuba. Recently, rumors have reached here of an approaching outbreak in the Island, but as our means of information are so limited, it is impossible to know to what degree of credit the rumor is entitled.

I am glad to see that the press of North Carolina is devoting some attention to the establishment of a military Institution faimilar to that in Virginia, and many other States. The education afforded by these Institutions is exactly such a one as to make the most useful citizens. I do not mean to depreciate in value the course of studies pursued at Colleges generally; perhaps it is the best preparation for the future acquisition of either of the learned professions. But with us there are thousands of persons graduating at our Colleges, who don't study professions, who enter at once into the practical details of life and business. For such a scientific rather than a classical course of studies would be the best preparation. I hope that the Legislature will give the subject its careful attention, and adopt some plan to effect the immediate establishment of the North Carolina Military Institute."
